06/07/2017	31	REPLY re 30 Status Report filed by FREEDOM WATCH. (Klayman, Larry) (Entered: 06/07/2017)
06/13/2017		MINUTE ORDER: The Court has received and reviewed Defendant FBI's 30 Status Report and Proposed Schedule, and Plaintiff's 31 Response thereto. The FBI estimates that it will be able to process documents at the rate of 500 pages per month. At this rate, the FBI estimates that it will take approximately 500 months to complete its entire production in this matter. Plaintiff, as has been its fashion throughout this litigation, provides a short response stating, in sum and substance, that the FBI is engaged in

		"disingenuous, dishonest delay tactics...." The Court has previously cautioned Plaintiff that, absent objective evidence, it will not countenance "Plaintiff's generalized and unsupported claims of misconduct against either Defendants or their attorneys." Mem. Op. and Order, ECF No. 29, at 2. Beyond such claims, Plaintiff has not furnished the Court with any reason, based in fact or law, for expediting the production of documents beyond the schedule proposed by the FBI. For example, Plaintiff has not responded to the FBI's proposal to pursue summary judgment on the applicability of Exemption 7(A), which if found applicable would in the FBI's estimation halve the time for completing its production. Status Report, ECF No. 30, at 2 n.2. Accordingly, the Court adopts the FBI's proposed schedule. The FBI shall process and produce 500 pages of responsive, non-exempt and segregable records every 30 days, with the next such release to occur by JUNE 30, 2017. That being said, the Court remains amenable to receiving reasonable proposals from Plaintiff to expedite the production of responsive materials (e.g., by limiting the scope of its requests). To the extent Plaintiff chooses to file such a proposal, it must be supported by fact and law, and cannot (absent evidentiary support) rely upon the baseless accusations already discussed. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 6/13/2017. (lcckk1) (Entered: 06/13/2017)
06/26/2017	32	MOTION for Reconsideration , MOTION for Sanctions by FREEDOM WATCH (Klayman, Larry) (Entered: 06/26/2017)
06/27/2017	33	Supplemental Memorandum to MOTION for Reconsideration re 32 MOTION for Reconsideration MOTION for Sanctions , MOTION for Sanctions Addendum by FREEDOM WATCH (Klayman, Larry) Modified text incorrect event used, on 6/28/2017 (td). (Entered: 06/27/2017)
06/30/2017		MINUTE ORDER: The Court has received Plaintiff's 32 Motion for Reconsideration of the Court's Minute Order of June 13, 2017 and Motion for Sanctions. Although styled as a motion for reconsideration, the Minute Order challenged in this motion expressly permitted the Plaintiff to file a "reasonable proposal[]... to expedite the production of responsive materials...." The Court shall interpret Plaintiff's motion as the beginnings of such a proposal. In particular, it appears that Plaintiff wishes to postpone the release of already public media materials in Defendant FBI's possession, and to expedite the release of "documents that relate to the criminal prosecution of Cliven Bundy; plans, efforts, strategies and implementation of the criminal prosecution of Cliven Bundy; documents related to Senator Harry Reid and his alleged real estate purchase deals; documents that relate to Rory Reid and his alleged real estate purchase deals; documents that relate to the Bureau of Land Management's plan to take physical possession of custody of Cliven Bundy's cattle within Clark County." Mot. for Reconsideration, at 2. Accordingly, the Court ORDERS the parties to meet and confer to discuss the possibility for expediting the release of such documents, and to file either a joint status report, or if need be, separate status reports, by JULY 28, 2017, regarding their efforts. With respect to Plaintiff's request for sanctions and attorney fees, Plaintiff claims that Defendants have demonstrated bad faith by proposing a 500 month release schedule. The Court disagrees. Given the breadth of Plaintiff's requests, Defendant FBI has indicated that it must process "at least 250,000 pages of documents... [,] from a time period dating at least as far back as 2010." ECF No. 30. Furthermore, Defendant FBI represented that "it stands ready, willing, and able to consider and apply any reasonable limitations on the scope of Plaintiff's significantly broad request." Defendant FBI also represented that it is "currently exploring alternative methods of streamlining this extensive process in a manner that permits it to more quickly complete its processing while still meeting its obligations under the FOIA." Id. at 3. The Court adopted Defendant FBI's proposed schedule principally because Plaintiff had "not furnished the Court with any reason, based in fact or law, for expediting the production of documents beyond the schedule proposed by the FBI." Minute Order, June 13, 2017. Finally, the Court notes again that Plaintiff did not request expedited processing when he originally filed his FOIA requests. Accordingly, Plaintiff's 32 Motion is DENIED. The parties shall proceed in accordance with this Minute Order, and the Court shall consider any appropriate modifications to Defendant FBI's production schedule upon receipt of the parties' proposals for prioritizing the release of certain documents. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 6/30/2017. (lcckk1) (Entered: 06/30/2017)

07/10/2017	34	MOTION to Clarify Court's Minute Order of June 30, 2017 , MOTION for Reconsideration Court's Minute Order of June 30, 2017 by FREEDOM WATCH (Attachments: # 1 Text of Proposed Order, # 2 Text of Proposed Order)(Klayman, Larry). Added MOTION to Expedite on 7/11/2017 (znmw). (Entered: 07/10/2017)
07/11/2017		MINUTE ORDER: The Court has received Plaintiff's 34 Motion to Clarify. Defendants shall file a response by JULY 18, 2017. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 7/11/2017. (lcckk1) (Entered: 07/11/2017)

07/13/2017	35	MOTION for Extension of Time to File BLM's Proposed Schedule and Opposition to Plaintiff's Motion for Clarification and Reconsideration by BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE (Attachments: # 1 Proposed Order)(Hendry, Melanie) (Entered: 07/13/2017)
07/14/2017	36	RESPONSE re 35 MOTION for Extension of Time to File BLM's Proposed Schedule and Opposition to Plaintiff's Motion for Clarification and Reconsideration filed by FREEDOM WATCH. (Klayman, Larry) (Entered: 07/14/2017)
07/14/2017		MINUTE ORDER: The Court has received Defendants' 35 Motion for Extension of Time, which seeks an extension of Defendant BLM's obligation to file a proposed production schedule by July 14, 2017, and Defendants' obligation to file a response to Plaintiff's 34 Motion to Clarify by July 18, 2017. Defendants request that both deadlines be moved to July 28, 2017, in light of their view that Plaintiff has modified the scope of his FOIA request. Plaintiff opposes an extension of either deadline, principally on the basis that, in its view, the requested extension is "another attempt to delay producing documents that are potentially exculpatory for a criminal defendant." ECF No. 36, at 2. Nonetheless, as this Court has held on several occasions, "the proper mechanism for Mr. Bundy to obtain potentially exculpatory evidence is through the criminal discovery process." Consequently, the pendency of Mr. Bundy's criminal trial, much as it is not a factor that "weigh[s] in favor of immediate or expedited processing of Plaintiff's FOIA request," is not a factor that warrants denial of Defendants' request for an extension of time. ECF No. 29, at 3. Accordingly, for good cause shown, Defendants' 35 Motion for Extension of Time is GRANTED. Defendant BLM shall file a proposed schedule, and Defendants shall file their response to Plaintiff's 34 Motion to Clarify, by JULY 28, 2017. However, there will be no further extensions with respect to these deadlines. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 7/14/2017. (lcckk1) (Entered: 07/14/2017)
07/14/2017		Set/Reset Deadlines: Defendant BLM shall file a proposed schedule, and Defendants shall file their response to Plaintiff's 34 Motion to Clarify by 7/28/2017. (dot) (Entered: 07/17/2017)

(Attachments: # 1 Exhibit A)(Hendry, Melanie) (Entered: 07/28/2017)
07/28/2017	38	STATUS REPORT by FREEDOM WATCH. (Klayman, Larry) (Entered: 07/28/2017)
08/11/2017		MINUTE ORDER: The Court has received and reviewed Plaintiff's 34 Motion for Clarification and Reconsideration of the Court's Minute Order of June 30, 2017, Defendants' 37 Opposition thereto, and Plaintiff's 38 Status Report. In the 34 Motion for Clarification and Reconsideration, Plaintiff requests that the Court "either order immediate production of responsive documentation or allow Freedom Watch to take immediate discovery, within the next two weeks, of Defendants' FOIA custodians of records to determine whether Defendants have complied in good faith with the obligations under FOIA." ECF No. 34, at 4. The immediacy of Plaintiff's request is predicated on Plaintiff's contention that "Cliven Bundy is facing imminent threat to his life and loss of substantial due process rights." Id. Mr. Bundy is not a party to this lawsuit, and this Court previously held that "the proper mechanism for Mr. Bundy to obtain potentially exculpatory evidence is through the criminal discovery process. To the extent Mr. Bundy believes that the government

		has withheld pertinent materials in his criminal case, the most direct and appropriate means for Mr. Bundy to obtain those materials is to seek relief before the district court judge adjudicating that matter." Mem. Op. and Order, ECF No. 29, at 23. With respect to Plaintiff's request for discovery, the Court previously held that "given the absence of any indicia of bad faith by the government in this matter, the Court sees no reason to permit discovery at this time." Id. at 2 n.2; Landmark Legal Found. v. EPA, 959 F. Supp. 2d 175, 183 (D.D.C. 2013) ("Discovery is the exception, not the rule, in FOIA cases." (internal quotation marks omitted)); Justice v. IRS, 798 F. Supp. 2d 43, 47 (D.D.C. 2011) ("Courts permit discovery in FOIA cases where a plaintiff has made a sufficient showing that the agency acted in bad faith." (internal quotation marks omitted)), aff'd, 485 F. App'x 439 (D.C. Cir. 2012). Furthermore, by Minute Order dated June 30, 2017, the Court already held that Defendants' proposed production schedule does not demonstrate bad faith. Nor is the production of public source material an indication of bad faith. Because no other indicia of bad faith is provided by the 34 Motion for Clarification and Reconsideration, discovery shall not be permitted. Nor is there a legal basis for Plaintiff's request for immediate production. Consequently, the 34 Motion for Clarification and Reconsideration is DENIED. The parties shall adhere to the following schedule of future proceedings. The Court adopts Defendant BLM's proposed schedule, under which it estimates that it can process 1,000 documents per month, and complete its processing of Plaintiff's modified FOIA request in approximately 20 months. With respect to Defendant FBI, the Court adopts Defendants' proposed schedule for the time being. By AUGUST 25, 2017, Defendant FBI shall file a declaration of the responsible FOIA official explaining in detail why its processing is limited to 500 pages per month, and what the consequences would be if the processing speed were increased for Plaintiff's FOIA request. Also by AUGUST 25, 2017, Plaintiff shall file a notice stating its position regarding Defendants' proposal to seek summary judgment on Exemption 7(A), which may considerably limit the number of documents that need to be processed by Defendant FBI. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 8/11/2017. 11/14/2017		MINUTE ORDER: The Court has received and reviewed Plaintiff's 41 Notice of Narrowing in Part FOIA Request. Plaintiff indicates that it would like to "substantially narrow the scope of its original [FOIA] request in order to expedite production of relevant, discoverable information." The new intended scope appears to be limited to "the production of agency records responsive to its original request that pertain to the live video feed depicting Cliven Bundy's ('Mr. Bundy') home and ranch as well as ingress and egress from Mr. Bundy's home and ranch that was being piped into the [Bureau of Land Management ('BLM')] 'Command Center' during the subject standoff with BLM and Federal Bureau of Investigation ('FBI') agents." The Court interprets this notice as indicating that Plaintiff is no longer seeking other documents within the scope of its original request. If this is not the case, Plaintiff should respond to this Minute Order by NOVEMBER 16, 2017. Plaintiff's counsel has indicated that "[d]uring an evidentiary hearing in the criminal prosecution of Mr. Bundy in the U.S. District Court for the District of Nevada[,] United States v. Bundy et al, 2:16-cr-00046 (D. Nev.) (the 'Bundy Prosecution')[,] witness Mary Hinson confirmed the existence of the live video feed in question." Based on Mr. Bundy's criminal case, Defendants BLM and FBI are presumably familiar with the live video feed referred to by Plaintiff. Accordingly, by NOVEMBER 21, 2017, Defendants shall 1) produce a copy of the live video feed in question or explain why they are not doing so, and 2) indicate whether any other "agency records responsive to [Plaintiff's] original request that pertain to the live video feed" in question exist, and how long Defendants require

01/18/2019		MINUTE ORDER: The Court has received the 58 Motion to Stay Proceedings and for Extension of Time in Light of Lapse in Appropriations, which Plaintiff opposes. There are two defendants in this action, the Bureau of Land Management ("BLM") and the U.S. Department of Justice ("DOJ"). For the avoidance of doubt, DOJ is both a defendant and counsel to the defendants in this case. The Motion is styled as if submitted by a singular defendant, seemingly BLM, although the Motion observes that not only BLM but also DOJ have experienced a lapse in appropriations. The Motion seeks a stay retroactive to the beginning of the government shutdown on December 22, 2018. In an exercise of the Court's discretion, the Court shall GRANT the 58 Motion nunc pro tunc . Except as provided below, the Court shall STAY this case effective December 22, 2018. Although this Motion may have been styled also as a request for an extension, counsel does not identify what specifically should be extended. The parties shall file a notice within five business days of the restoration of DOJ's funding and the resumption of its operations. Counsel indicates that Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") personnel at BLM have not been deemed essential. Counsel also indicates that attorneys at DOJ are furloughed, but counsel does not address whether DOJ personnel who may be responsible for processing Plaintiff's FOIA request to DOJ have been deemed essential. The Court understands that the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI") may instead be handling this FOIA request to DOJ; counsel has not indicated either whether the FBI personnel who may be responsible for processing Plaintiff's FOIA request to DOJ have been deemed essential. To the extent that those DOJ and/or FBI personnel have been deemed essential, they should continue to process Plaintiff's respective FOIA request during the pendency of the lapse in appropriations so that, upon restoration of funding, this matter may proceed more promptly. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on January 18, 2019. (lcckk1) (Entered: 01/18/2019)
